Roles and responsibilities overview

The head of centre is the individual who is accountable to the awarding bodies for ensuring that the centre is always compliant with the published JCQ regulations and awarding body requirements to ensure the security and integrity of the examinations/assessments.

The examinations officer is the person appointed by the head of centre to act on behalf of, and be the main point of contact for, the centre in matters relating to the general administration of awarding body examinations and assessments.

The head of centre may not appoint themselves as the examinations officer. A head of centre and an examinations officer are two distinct and separate roles.

The head of centre and/or examinations officer may operate across more than one centre. In such cases the head of centre must ensure there is suitable support in place, so they can meet their obligations across all centres for which they are responsible. The head of centre must ensure that these arrangements are covered by their examination contingency plan.

- Written candidate consent (informed consent via candidate email is acceptable) is required in all cases before a request is submitted to the awarding body as with these services candidates' marks and subject grades may be lowered. Candidate consent can only be collected after the publication of results. Written consent will be retained by the centre for at least six months following the outcome of the clerical recheck or review of marking or any subsequent appeal.
- If a concern is raised about a particular examination result, for example an error is suspected, the exams officer, teaching staff and head of centre will investigate the feasibility of requesting an enquiry supported by the centre.

- If the candidate (or his/her parent/carer) believes there are grounds to appeal against the centre's decision not to support an enquiry, an internal appeal can be submitted to the centre by completing the internal appeals form attached to this policy at least 5 calendar days prior to the internal deadline for submitting an RoR.

The JCQ publications Post-Results Services and JCQ Appeals Booklet (A guide to the awarding bodies' appeals processes) will be consulted to determine the acceptable grounds for a preliminary appeal.
- Where the head of centre is satisfied after receiving the RoR outcome, but the candidate (or his/her parent/carer) believes there are grounds for a preliminary appeal to the awarding body, a further internal appeal may be made to the head of centre. Following this, the head of centre's decision as to whether to proceed with a preliminary appeal will be based upon the acceptable grounds as detailed in the JCQ Appeals Booklet. Candidates or parents/carers are not permitted to make direct representations to an awarding body.
- The internal appeals form should be completed and submitted to the centre within 2 calendar days of the notification of the outcome of the RoR. Subject to the head of centre's decision, this will allow the centre to process the preliminary appeal and submit to the awarding body within the required 30 calendar days of receiving the outcome of the enquiry about results process. Awarding body fees which may be charged for the preliminary appeal must be paid to the centre by the appellant before the preliminary appeal is submitted to the awarding body (fees are available from the exams officer). If the appeal is upheld by the awarding body, this fee will be refunded by the awarding body and repaid to the appellant by the centre.

 - has written procedures in place to verify the identity of all candidates at the time of the examination or assessment

Checking the identity of students on initial registration / admission

The identity of students on roll at King Edward VI School Lichfield is checked as part of the initial registration / admission process.

Staffordshire County Council Education Authority informs King Edward VI School Lichfield of the names of the new Year 7 cohort allocated to the school. This list contains details including name, date of birth, sex, UPN, address, current primary school. Staffordshire County Council Education Authority is responsible for checking ID of new admissions. Primary schools upload a Common Transfer File (CTF) to King Edward VI School Lichfield for each child to transfer their details. These are checked to ensure they match the new admissions details given by Staffordshire County Council Education Authority. They are then imported onto the school MIS system.

For in-year admissions for years 7-11 King Edward VI School Lichfield asks to see a copy of the student's original birth certificate. The student's previous school uploads the Common Transfer File (CTF) to King Edward VI School Lichfield with their details.

For new admissions into year 12, students have a face to face interview prior to acceptance. Students are required to provide a copy of their GCSE results slip from their previous school. King Edward VI School Lichfield verifies all of their details against the DfE website and also contacts the previous school to ensure each student's files are sent through.

Checking the identity of internal candidates for exams

In a large venue such as the sports hall, the head of year and form tutors are present to supervise entry into and seating of the examination where they identify each student. Seating staff will have a copy of the seating plan including candidate names and numbers, and a clear candidate card including this information will be present on the desks.

Any staff present are in accordance with the rules defined by JCQ concerning who is allowed in and what they can do. Students are issued with photographic ID cards and a full directory with photographs, names and candidates numbers for all students is available in large exam rooms. This enables exams staff to check the identity of students who arrive late after the head of year / form tutors have left.

In smaller venues where no pastoral staff are present, invigilators are provided with a photograph directory with names and candidates numbers of students for that room. Their identity is verified as they enter the examination room against the directory or their student ID card.

In all exam rooms a candidate card is placed on the desks according to the seating plan to indicate where the candidate should sit.

Checking the identity of private candidates

The identity of any student who has not received any tuition at King Edward VI School Lichfield but who may be accepted to enter examinations as a private candidate will be checked by a verification process which involves photo-ID (e.g. passport, driver's licence). The Exams Officer will ask to see photo-ID when entries are made and prior to the candidate's first exam, controlled assessment, practical or speaking unit. A copy will be held on file and used by the Exams Officer or a designated member of the exams team to identify private candidates with no previous connection to the school before each exam.

Transferred candidates not known to the centre will be asked to show photographic documentary evidence in the same way to prove that they are the same person who entered/registered for the examination/assessment, e.g. a passport or photographic driver's licence.

If they do not have a valid passport or driver's licence with a photograph, they need to provide:

- a private candidate identification form completed and signed by a witness
- two passport-sized photographs taken within the last 12 months, one of which must be signed on the reverse by a witness.
- The witness must be a person who knows them and is in one of the following categories:

Head of an educational institution, medical practitioner, minister of religion, magistrate, solicitor, bank manager, their employer.

Private candidates who have previously received tuition at King Edward VI School Lichfield may be identified by the photographic record held on file for them rather than photo-ID.

Wearing of religious clothing

Where it is impossible to identify a candidate due to the wearing of religious clothing, such as a veil, the candidate is asked by a member of staff of the same gender and taken to a private room where they are politely asked to remove the religious clothing for identification purposes. Candidates will be informed in advance of this procedure well before their first examination.

Once identification has been established, the candidate may replace their religious clothing and proceed as normal to sit the examination.

- Seat candidates in exam rooms as instructed by the EO/on the seating plan
